IMPORTANT INFORMATION

This passport is the property of the Government of Ghana and must be surrendered either on demand or on death of the Passport holder to an authorised representative of the Ghana Government.

It is a valuable document and should not be altered in any way or allowed to pass into the possession of an unauthorised person. If lost or destroyed, the fact and circumstances should be immediately reported to any Passport Office in Ghana, or the nearest Ghana Mission or Consulate and to the local police. New passports can only be issued, in such cases, after exhaustive enquiries.

Ghana passports are issued by the competent authorities in Ghana and by the Diplomatic Missions and Consulates of Ghana abroad to which application should be made.

If at any time the passport contains no further space for Visas, a new passport should be obtained.

Ghana passports are available for travel to "ALL COUNTRIES" unless otherwise indicated. The possession of a passport does not exempt the holder from compliance with any immigration regulation in force in any territory or from the necessity of obtaining a Visa or entry permit where required.

REGISTRATION AT DIPLOMATIC MISSIONS ABROAD

Ghanaians who are resident abroad should at the earliest opportunity register their names and addresses at the nearest Diplomatic Mission or Consulate of Ghana. Failure to do so may in a period of emergency result in difficulty or delay in according them the assistance and protection of which they are entitled.

Changes of address or departure from the country should also be notified to the Mission or Consulate.
